

RN-BSN CURRICULUM PLAN

Thirty hours credit from FAMU is required for the baccalaureate degree. RN-BSN students must meet this requirement to be eligible for graduation. The following required nursing courses must be taken to meet the residency requirement:

SEMESTER ONE

- NUR 3825 Introduction to Professional Nursing (2)
- NUR 3064 Homeostasis & Assessment (4)
- NUR 3064L Homeostasis & Assessment: Clinical Lab (1)
- NUR 3126 Pathophysiological Concepts I (1)
- NUR 3617 Promoting Health of Populations I (1)
- NUR 3617L Promoting health of Populations I: Clinical (1)

Total: 10

SEMESTER TWO

- NUR 4671 Promoting the Health of Populations II (2)
- NUR 4671L Promoting the Health of Populations II: Clinical (1)
- NUR 4127 Pathophysiological Concepts II (1)
- NUR 3169 Research & Evidenced Based Practice (3)
- NUR 3905 Directed Individual Study (4)

Total: 11

SEMESTER THREE

- NUR 4827 Leading and Managing in Complex Systems (4)
- NUR 4948L Professional Transition Practicum (2)
- XXX XXXX Free Electives (3)

Total: 9

Total: 30 hrs

Note: RN-BSN students must successfully complete the required semester courses before progressing to the next semester of courses. First semester courses must be successfully completed prior to enrollment in the clinical courses.